

FROM THE DESK OF MSGR. TOSI ---

*And He was transfigured before them and his clothes became dazzling white...
Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice,
"This is my beloved Son. Listen to Him."*

(Mark 9:2-10)

On this Second Sunday of Lent the church each year relates the event of the Transfiguration of Jesus. Today the church wants us to focus on the goal not only of Lent but of the life of every Christian - the Glory of Heaven. The Cross - its suffering and humiliation - and the Passion predicted by Jesus is not the end for which we long. NO, rather, the wood of the Cross is the means by which we are saved and so share the glory of Jesus' transfiguration. As St. Paul tells us if we have united ourselves to Christ in death we shall be united to Christ in newness of life.

And in order to unite ourselves to Christ we must heed the words spoken from the cloud: "This is my beloved Son. Listen to Him." In this communication age we have so many devices to help us "keep in touch". We have become good talkers - but what about listening? Sometimes I 'm so busy talking to God; telling Him my problems and suggesting what He said do that I leave so little time for God to speak to me. Yet, isn't communication a two way street? Do you know someone who constantly talks to you but gives you little opportunity to talk with him/her? Are we that type of person toward God?

Perhaps this Lent we can accept the discipline of listening - to God and to others. Do I mean listening for a voice from heaven out of a cloud? No. God speaks to us in far more ordinary ways, things and yes, even people. If only we listen.

Try it - you might like it!
God bless.

Let us pray for one another,

Msgr. Tosi

"So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?"

These words of Jesus to Peter in the Garden of Gethsemane on the night before He died for us could as well be spoken to you - and me. But we can "keep watch".

Starting today (Sunday, March 4) the parish will celebrate Forty Hours Devotion. Beginning with the 1:00pm Mass on Sunday the Blessed Sacrament will be on the altar of the church for 40 hours - night and day - until the Closing Mass on Tuesday, March 6 at 7:30pm.

Come - keep watch with Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament; spend time in prayer; listen to Jesus; talk with Him.

What a special time of Grace.
So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?
How will you and I answer?

We now have a thermometer in front of the church to let everyone know the good news as our pledge total grows!

As of Wednesday, February 29th the total pledged is

$3,008,476

So --- we continue to need your pledge. Many still assure me that they plan to make a pledge to the Campaign.

Please make your pledge today!

GOOD NEWS ---

A computer program for billing purposes is now up and running. Soon we will be able to send billing reminders to those who pledged to the campaign. Sorry for the delay - it was a bigger process than first thought.

You can still make a payment by sending it to the rectory in an envelope marked "Campaign" or to the attention of Msgr. Tosi.

A THANK YOU ---

Msgr. Tosi,

Again, our thanks for your recent generous donation of religious articles, vestments and artwork to the Mission Office. These items are in great demand by visiting missionaries and they are very grateful to have them. You and St. Luke's continue to be ever mindful of our needs and the needs of missionaries throughout the world. Your faith community are the "missionaries who stay" as Msgr. John Kozar, former national director, always referred those who support the missions. The current director, Fr. Andrew Small, OMI has stated that, "Only the Church can help the Church." The people of St. Luke are good examples of that statement.

Respectfully,

Deacon Louis J. Panico, Associate Director
Propagation of the Faith

February 26, 2012

To Monsignor Tosi and the parishioners of St. Luke's Parish:

It is with deep appreciation and overwhelming gratitude that I write to you in thanksgiving for the warm reception you held in my name on Sunday, February 17 after the Masses. It was so great to see so many of the people that I looked forward to serving each weekend and on holy days as the sacristan at St. Luke's Church.

Having attended school there since kindergarten, becoming an altar server and sacristan, and becoming deeply involved with the Knights of Columbus, I have been blessed by God to have the privilege of meeting and working with so many great people. It is because of priests like Monsignor Capua, Father Wilson, and Monsignor Tosi, and people such as those in St. Luke's Parish, that I can attribute being close to the Lord as well as the eagerness to grow closer to Him. My increasing desire to serve the parish, the many friendships that formed from the parish, all brought me even closer to the Lord. I know the Lord more so because of St. Luke's Parish.

The response from the parishioners that Sunday was nothing uncommon for this community – generous and loving. I was taken aback and filled with great emotion when I read all the cards and spoke to everyone that day. I can't thank you enough. I thank you for your kind words and well wishes, your generous gifts, and especially, your prayers. Please be assured that the gifts I received will all be put towards the purchase of my uniform in June, so that, while serving others and keeping with my oath to protect and preserve life, YOU all will be with me in so doing.

I am also extremely grateful to Monsignor Tosi for making this party for me. Monsignor would not allow me to resist his request to have this party, which of course, is very Monsignor-like. Monsignor has a good way of showing his appreciation, and I was very touched by this.

As Monsignor ends his weekly bulletin letter to you, I do the same:

Let us pray for one another!

By the intercession of our Blessed Lady and the protection of St. Michael, forever your friend and sacristan,

Eddie
