

FROM THE DESK OF MSGR. TOSI ---

I came so that all might have life and have it to the full.

Today - October 2nd - is Respect Life Sunday. Each year the first Sunday in October is designated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops as a day especially dedicated to promote an ever deepening awareness of the respect and dignity of all human life.

The theme for this year's Respect Life Sunday is taken from the very words of Jesus - "I came so that all might have life and have it to the full". With these words the church proclaims the sacredness of all human life from conception to natural death in the face of ever growing threats to human life. Yet as Christians we must witness to the value of human life as a gift of almighty God, our loving Father. Our witness must be not only of words but of actions - actions that not only protest the culture of death but show forth our concern, love and protection for all human life.

Each year people dedicated to life gather to witness to life and pray for the end of abortion in the March for Life in Washington, D.C. This year the March for Life will take place on January 23, 2012. Yet our witness to life must not be just a one day event. The witness to life must occupy our attention and guide our actions every day. It can be as simple as treating each other with respect and kindness; acting without violence or bullying; listening to the elderly; visiting the sick; caring for the needs of others or supporting someone faced with a difficult pregnancy. Respect for life can witness by working for a culture of life; lobbying for laws that support life! The list of actions is endless. And of course we can pray - a very powerful action that fosters life and can change hearts and minds to turn from death to life!

October is the month of the Holy Rosary. Let us pray to our Blessed Mother for a true respect and love for Life. For her son Jesus is the way, the truth and the life. By his death and resurrection Jesus has given us divine life - eternal life!

God bless.

Let us pray for one another,

Msgr. Tosi

FEAST OF SAINT LUKE ---

Join us for Mass in honor of our patron Saint Luke on Tuesday, October 18th at 7:30pm. Refreshments will follow in the school hall.
All are welcome!

MISSION STATEMENT

As a community of believers in Jesus Christ and in Communion with the universal church, we strive to follow the Lord's command to love God and one another. Rooted in word and sacrament, we grow together as a Eucharistic community inviting all to the Good News of Jesus.

MASS BOOK 2012 ---

The Mass Book for 2012 will open on Wednesday, October 26. Announced Masses will be available from 9:00am until 5:00pm. There is a limit of 5 Masses per family. The offering for each Mass is $15 which may be paid for by check or cash. In order to make things run more smoothly, please remember to bring the exact amount for the number of Masses you wish to arrange. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

REFLECTION ON

THE ROMAN MISSAL ---

A workshop for all Liturgical Ministers and Religious Education Catechists will be presented by Msgr. Tosi on Saturday, October 22nd from 9:30am until 1:00pm in the School Hall. All are encouraged to attend this valuable session.

DID YOU KNOW?

That every Sunday Msgr. Tosi celebrates a Mass for the parishioners of the parish. Known as the Pro Popolo Mass or Mass for the people this weekly Mass is an obligation - a joyful one at that - required by the church of all pastors/administrators.

However, Msgr. Tosi remembers the people of the parish in his prayers especially at Mass every day. Yet each Sunday his Mass is celebrated with the intention for the people of the parish.

SPECIAL DAY OF PRAYER ---

The feast of Saint Francis of Assisi - October 4 - has been set aside as a Diocesan Day of Prayer to ask God's blessings and guidance as we move forward with the strategic planning process in order to strengthen and build up the Catholic church in Brooklyn and Queens.

In observance of the Day of Prayer, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be observed here in the church from after the 8:30am Mass until 5:00pm. All our parishioners are asked to set aside some time for prayer this day as the Diocese seeks God's assistance.

The usual Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on the first Friday of October - October 7th will NOT take place. Please note this change to our regular schedule.

WE HAVE A PROBLEM ---

with the continued use of the lower church meeting area. Due to water leaks in this area certain sections of the walls are soaked causing a dangerous condition with the electrical wiring. We have had two incidents which could have resulted in fire. With the assistance of an electrician we are trying to determine the best course of action. However, until we can ensure the safety of the lower church, use of this area will no longer be possible. While this may cause some inconvenience and rearrangement of meeting place I'm sure you can understand the importance of this action. As always your cooperation is so greatly appreciated.

Msgr. Tosi

A PILGRIM'S REFLECTION ON WORLD YOUTH DAY ---

I'd like to thank everyone again who helped make the trip to World Youth Day possible for Teresa and I.

This trip to World Youth Day in Spain was truly an inspirational experience for me, and it has truly straightened my faith. As Msgr. Tosi has said many times Catholics don't look happy – at World Youth Day I was surrounded by happiness. You could sense how happy all the pilgrims around me were; you could see that their happiness was coming from their love of God, their love of everyone else, and their joy of being together to celebrate being Catholic. They are the Catholic Church today, and are full of the love and happiness that we should all carry with us each day.

This experience has truly impacted me. To see all these other youths from around the world really opened my eyes, it's was amazing to see how many youths are involved with the church. We sometimes forget our church spreads wide and far. It has encouraged me to try and introduce other youths in our church to get involved, and become a more active part of St. Luke's. Young people must understand that it is important that we all get involved with the church because we are the future. But while it's very important for all our young people to get involved, and participate, all our parishioners are very important because we are all needed to support our church - without our parishioner there is no church. These young people at WYD were from around the world and everyone was involved in the church in some way. We've always been taught that everyone is important and everyone is equal, and at WYD you can see that that was not just a lesson, but a reality. Everyone respected one another and treated each other like friends without knowing one another or thinking they were different.

All around, this trip was a great idea, and was a lot of fun. I got more out of it than I expected and I'm truly glad about that. I met lots of new people who were kind and shared similar interests in our faith, and were happy to be there to celebrate our love of God together.

Having World Youth Day is a wonderful idea, and having older teens and young adults is a great age to participate in this. We are still very young to enjoy the experience, but yet mature enough to really embrace this event and express our faith together. We were encouraged to go out and met people from different backgrounds and see how they live and see how they express their faith. I truly came out of this experience with a strengthened faith, a better understanding of how important youths are in the church, and a deeper commitment to helping others grow in their faith. This experience inspired me in so many ways. I am very glad that the decision was made to have two representatives from St. Luke's and that I was one of the one chosen. My hope is that others from St. Luke's will be able to experience this in the years to come.

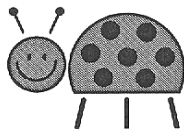

Thank you all again!
James Cazzorla

A PILGRIM'S REFLECTION ON WORLD YOUTH DAY ---

It is very funny how God works. There was a girl on this trip who I was best friends with back in Freshman year of high school and unfortunately throughout high school we grew apart and our friendship failed to exist by senior year. After graduating from Molloy I would of never thought we would be best friends again because we had grown so far apart. When I found out she was going on this trip I was happy and felt safe knowing a familiar face amongst the 2 million youth. She was part of the St. Sebastian's group, which started out in the hotel that was nowhere near the hotel my group stayed in. When my group arrived at our hotel I was surprised to see her there. I asked why she was in our hotel and she said that at the last minute they had to change hotels. We just stood there and smiled and said God works in mysterious ways because we both knew he had something to do with this. This trip brought us together and rekindled our friendship. We cried with each other and talked about everything we had missed out on those four years. We bonded over our faith and the feelings of awe and amazement we were experiencing throughout the trip. Needless to say we are closer then ever.

Looking out into the field of over 2 million catholic youth that Saturday night made me take a moment and see how amazing this pilgrimage really was. To realize that you were just one of millions of youth who made their way from all over the world to Madrid to celebrate their love for Jesus. Telling people stories and the words on this paper are not enough to express the powerful feelings of emotion, awe, and inspiration that I felt while I was there. To see the pope and have him just a few feet from where we were standing is not something everyone can say. To experience the culture of Spain and meet youth from all over the world was mind-blowing. We meet people from Italy, Malaysia, France, Ecuador, Australia, South Africa, Nigeria, Sudan, Poland, and Brazil... just to name a few. This experience was a once in a lifetime experience that really left me floating on cloud nine. The catechesis we attended for three days made me step out of the little world I was in and see the big picture. I came home with a deepened love for God, a sense of strength in my values and beliefs, and overall those ten days in Spain helped me grow closer to God and helped strengthen my relationship with Him. Words cannot express the gratitude I have for the people of this parish who supported James and I in making this trip possible for us. I will keep you all in my prayers. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Teresamarie Governale
